Snow in the Northwest—A Robber Arrested—Men Drowned—New Railroad—Suit for Damages—Death of a Journalist.

CINCINNATI, December 10.—The weather is very cold to-day, with a slight fall of snow. Reports from the West and Northwest represent cold weather, with more or less snow.

Newton Corbly was arrested to-day for stealing four thousand dollars from Bunyan Corbly, at Mount Washington, last week. Nearly all the money was recovered.

Three men were drowned at Paducah, Ky., yesterday, while attempting to cross the river in a skiff.

Work on the Cincinnati and Louisville Railroad will be commenced immediately. Five hundred thousand dollars have been subscribed by the Louisville and Nashville Railroad in aid of the enterprise. The road will be about one hundred miles long, and will intersect the Louisville and Frankfort road at Lagrange, Ky.

Colonel Taylor assumed charge of the Cincinnati Postoffice yesterday, vice Mayer, removed.

The last vessel of the Lake fleet arrived at Chicago this morning. There are now three hundred and sixty-two vessels, of all kinds, laid up there.

The coal tar works connected with the St. Louis gas works were destroyed by fire this morning.

Thirty-three suits for damages, amounting to forty million dollars, in the United States District Court at Newport Ky., against Gassaway and others, for alleged illegal arrests during the rebellion, have been dismissed at the cost of the plaintiffs.

The expenses of the Cincinnati fire department for the last nine months were over one hundred and forty-four thousand dollars.

James Loche, a well known journalist of this city, died last night.

Detention of Hon. C. V. Culver.

OUR OCCUPATION OF MATAMORAS.

The Capture of Surratt.

THE MISSION TO MEXICO.

WASHINGTON, D. C., December 26.—A committee has been ordered to investigate the cause of the detention of Hon. C. V. Culver, of Pennsylvania.

The President replied to the enquiry of the House about the occupation of the Territory of Mexico, saying he had no information but telegrams which had been published. He also sent a voluminous report on the subject of the capture of J. H. Surratt, which was not read.

The United States Consul at Vera Cruz reports to the State Department that Maximilian was to leave Orizaba on the 28th for the City of Mexico, and that the United States mission was likely to be regarded in a friendly manner.

The absence of Judge Grier from the Supreme Court prevented the announcement of any decision on the test oath to-day.

It is understood that Congress will adjourn for ten days on the 22d.

The Ways and Means Committee have not taken any action on the Gold bill yet.

The President will not Pardon Jeff Davis—He will Remain at Fortress Monroe.

WASHINGTON, December 10.—It is stated that the President will not order the release of Jefferson Davis on parole, or in any manner interfere in his case. Mr. Davis will remain at Fortress Monroe, until arrangements can be made for his trial in the spring.

THE STATE DEBT.

RALEIGH, December 10.—Governor Worth is in correspondence with the President relative to the order of General Sickles prohibiting corporeal punishment by courts of North Carolina.

Ex-Governor Holden has gone to Washington.

Numerous measures for the relief of the people are pending in the Legislature.

The sentiments of the members are decidedly adverse to the repudiation of the State debt. The interest on the State debt is refunded.

A resolution asserting the loyalty of the State, and denying the alleged persecution of Union men, passed the House by a large vote.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE AT COLUMBIA, PA.

Loss from $100,000 to $150,000.

COLUMBIA, Penn., Dec. 10.—A destructive fire last night destroyed several buildings, among which were J. W. Houston's dry goods store, which proved a total loss; Williams' drug store, partially insured; Hennstein & Co., clothing and dry goods; Hinn, part of their stock saved; Burch & Aiken, dry goods, part of stock saved, fully insured; and Ballard's saloon, whose total loss is unknown. The flames spread rapidly, owing to the lack of fire apparatus. The losses are estimated at from $100,000 to $110,000, with little insurance.

From Canada—Information of Another Raid—John Surratt.

NEW YORK, December 10.—The Herald's Sweetsburg special says: Governor General Reid received information of an intended raid by Roberts' Fenians on Canada immediately, via the village of Teresconta. No troops are stationed there.

The assassin Surratt was the guest of J. Hogan, St. Lawrence Hall, after his escape from Washington. Southerners in Canada supplied him with funds.

A Servant Girl Shoots Her Employer.

TERRE HAUTE, IND, Dec. 10.—About one o'clock this afternoon, Mr. C. R. Fairbrother, proprietor of the Terre Haute House, was shot, and it is supposed mortally wounded, by a servant girl named Eliza O'Brien. She was discharged this morning for some improper conduct, and had returned for her clothing. The pistol was concealed in her muff. She was immediately arrested and placed in custody.

Municipal Election in Baltimore—Death of Charles Minot.

BOSTON, Dec. 10.—At the municipal election to-day Otis Horcross, Republican, was elected Mayor by 826 votes. A majority of the City Council are Republicans.

ASSASSIN SURRATT.

The Particulars of His Arrest.

SEWARD EXCULPATED FROM BLAME.

Correspondence Upon the Subject.

&c., &c., &c.

WASHINGTON, December 10.—The President communicated to the House to-day the correspondence on the arrest of John H. Surratt. It is very voluminous and relieves Mr. Seward of the imputation that he had neglected to use proper efforts to secure the arrest of the fugitive. Under date of Liverpool the 22d of September, 1865, Mr. Wilding informs Mr. Seward that Surratt had arrived, or was expected to arrive in that city. He enclosed an affidavit of the person whose name was not made known, but who, it seems, was confident of Surratt's stating all the particulars of his voyage from Canada, and the conversation on the way. Surratt confessed that he had been in the Confederate service, and that his special business was to convey intelligence from Washington to Richmond. He also declared that the plan to kidnap and carry off President Lincoln was concocted by himself and J. Wilkes Booth. He says he arrived in Canada before the assassination of President Lincoln, and while there had received a letter from Booth saying that it had become necessary to change their plans and requested him to come immediately to Washington; but did he not say whether he returned there as requested, but said on his way back to Canada the train was delayed at St. Catharines, and whilst setting at the breakfast table, a gentleman next to him mentioned the report of the assassination and that he, McCarthy, as he then called himself, thereupon replied that it was too good to be true. The gentleman took a newspaper from his pocket and read an account of the occurrence, and McCarthy, surprised at finding his own name mentioned, immediately left on Sunday evening. He had stated to me a long conversation held with Mr, ——, at Richmond, and I said to him, "You have told me a great deal, stranger, now, sir, what shall I call your name?" He promptly answered, "Surratt." This was before our arrival at Londonderry. He has not seen Surratt since, but I believe he is in Liverpool.

Under date of September 3d Mr. Wilding says: Since my dispatch of the 23d inst., the supposed Surratt has arrived in Liverpool, but Mr. Adams advises me that, under the present evidence of identity and complicity, it would not be politic to cause his arrest. In conversation with ——, of ——, Surratt declared that he hoped that he would live long enough yet to give an account of President Johnson.

Under date of October 13th, 1865, Mr. Hunter, Assistant Secretary of State, writes, that on consultation with the Secretary of War and Judge Advocate Holt, it is not thought advisable to take any step for the arrest of the supposed Surratt at present.

Mr. King, under date of April 23d, 1866, writes to Mr. Seward informing him that John Surratt had enlisted in the Papal Zouaves, and had admitted that his true name was Surratt and acknowledged his participation in plotting against the life of President Lincoln. He declared that he had never seen Jeff. Davis, but that it was understood that he had incited or was privy to the plot.

Mr. King's informant says Surratt seemed to be well provided with money, and appealed to him not to betray his secret. The informer expresses an earnest desire that if any steps be taken towards reclaiming Surratt as a criminal, that his name should not be made known in the matter.

May 17th, 1866, Mr. Seward informs Mr. Stanton of the receipt of the foreign information and laid before him Mr. King's letter detailing all the facts. May 19th, Mr. Stanton acknowledges the receipt of the documents and says he had referred the same to Judge Advocate General Holt, who advises him that the statements of the informant be procured and verified, and afterwards proper steps be taken for the arrest of the supposed criminal.

Under date of May 28th, Secretary Seward suggests to the Secretary of War that as we have no extradition treaty with the Papal Government, that a special agent be sent to the same to demand the surrender of Surratt.

Under date of Rome, June 23d, Mr. King reports that he had held another long conversation with ——, which fully confirmed him in the belief of the truth of his statement which his informant had committed to writing. He says that Surratt had fully confessed his own complicity and admitted his mother's guilt of participation. The witness says that he was at one time a teacher in the village of Texas, Maryland, and declares himself prepared to go to the United States. He still wishes his name concealed, fearing that his life would be endangered, if divulged. Surratt also remarked to him that he was in New York ready to fly when the assassination took place, and he does not regret what has occurred.

On July 14th Mr. King returns to Mr. Seward the above statement against Surratt, properly sworn to by the informant.

ROME, August 8.—Mr. King says he explained the whole affair to the authorities in Rome, when His Eminence expressed himself as greatly interested, and intimated that if the American Government desired a surrender of the criminal there would probably be no difficulty in the way.

OCTOBER 16.—Mr Seward incloses to Mr King a photograph of Surratt, and suggests that a confidential person be selected to visit Velletia and compare the photograph of Surratt with the supposed criminal. He also suggests that a proper compensation be allowed the informant, and directs him to seek positive information of the authorities whether His Holiness would be willing to surrender Surratt, or whether he would be willing to enter into a general extradition treaty.

Mr. King was also instructed to ask that neither Surratt nor —— be discharged until there had been a full investigation of the matter, and time be given to make a demand for them.

ROME, Nov. 24.—Mr. King says he has had a full interview with Cardinal Antoneilli, who has responded that he would give up Surratt upon proper indictment and proof at the request of the United States, if the latter Government would do likewise under parallel circumstances. Mr. King also replied that he would like a confidential person to compare Surratt's photograph with the supposed criminal.

NOVEMBER 10.—Cardinal Antonilli apprised Mr. King that Surratt or Watson had been arrested by his orders, (the Cardinal's), but on the way to Rome had escaped from a guard of six men. The Cardinal expressed great regret at Suratt's escape. All the orders of the Papal Government and the reports of the Papal officers concerning the arrest and escape were enclosed.

NOVEMBER 17.—Messrs. King and Assistant Secretary of the Navy, Fox, sent word to Minister Harvey at Lisbon, to direct Admiral Goldsborough to send a United States vessel to Civita Vecchia, upon important business.

FLORENCE, November 18.—Mr. Marsh reports that he had immediately upon his arrival from Naples, an interview with the Secretary General of the Minister of foreign affairs, and asked him if he thought the Italian Government would surrender Surratt if he should be found in Italian territory. The Secretary General replied that he believed Surratt would be surrendered by that government on a proper demand by the United States, and proof of the identity of the criminal, but that this would probably be done only under the stipulation on the part of the United States authorities, that the punishment of death should not be inflicted upon the criminal surrendered to the Consul. General Howard reports that Surratt had been hunted from Naples, and it had been ascertained that under the name of Walters, he had the day before proceeded in the regular steamer to Alexandria, Egypt. Mr. King thereupon telegraphed to Consul Hale, at Alexandria, to arrest Surratt upon his arrival.

Under date of December 24 Consul Hale telegraphs to Mr. Seward that he has arrested John Surratt at Alexandria. Mr. Seward to Consul Hale, under date of December 2d, telegraphs him that his course is approved, and measures have been taken to bring Surratt home.

Mr. Seward, under date of December 4, telegraphs Consul Hale that the Secretary of the Navy has instructed Admiral Goldsborough to bring Surratt home, and directs Consul Hale to deliver him to Admiral Goldsborough.

ROBBERY OF $180,000 IN BONDS,

The Fenians in New York.

LARGE SHIPMENT OF ARMS.

NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—Mr. McDonald, agent of the Royal Insurance Company, in Wall street, reports that while his attention was diverted a thief abstracted a tin box from the safe containing $180,000 in Government bonds, and got off safe with it.

Nearly all of the visitors at Stevens' Fenian headquarters, lately, appear to be strangers from Europe. Several Irish pilots have disappeared. It is estimated that 80,000 stand of arms have been received and sent off from here since the raid on Canada.

MEXICAN AFFAIRS.

THE OCCUPATION OF MATAMORAS.

OFFICIAL CORRESPONDENCE.

Letters from Grant, Sheridan and the Secretary of War.

WASHINGTON CITY, D. C., December 10, 1866.—In reply to the House resolution calling upon the President for information whether any portion of Mexican territory have been occupied by troops of the United States, &c., the President has sent the following report from the Secretary of War:

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.

To Hon. E. M. Stanton, Sec'y of War:

SIR:—I have the honor to return herewith the resolution of the House of Representatives of Congress, asking to be informed whether any portion of Mexican territory had been occupied by the troops of the United States, and if so, by what authority and for what purpose, which was referred to me for a report. In compliance, I would respectfully state that no official information of the occupation of any portion of Mexican territory has been received at these headquarters, and no authority has been given either by the Major General commanding the Department of the Gulf or myself for any movement of troops into said territory. Attention is respectfully invited to the communication of Major General Sheridan, dated Nov. 27th, enclosing a letter of Gen. Sedgwick, commanding the Interior District of the Rio Grande, which was forwarded to the Secretary of War for his information December 5th, 1866; also the copy of his letter of November 30th, ult., and copies of telegrams bearing on the subject,

Very respectfully your ob't serv't,
U. S. GRANT, General.

NEW ORLEANS, 10 A. M., Nov. 14, 1866.—To Gen. U. S. Grant:—Col. Gillespie, of my staff, has just returned from Brownsville. Ortega was arrested at Brazos, Santiago, for attempted violations of our neutrality laws. My letter to Sedgwick and this arrest were opportune, as Canales, in Matamoras, and Negreto and his adherents, in Brownsville, were just waiting his arrival to assert his claims by an appeal to arms. He had adherents in Mexico, except the French and English merchants, who heretofore supported Maximilian.

There is no trouble in all Northern Mexico, except in Matamoras and Tampico, and those merchants are at the bottom of it. My letter and the arrest of Ortego will settle everything on the Rio Grande, and I think in a few days Ortego can do without violating the neutrality. I hope the Government will support me in this simple and just method of restoring peace to our border, and trade and commerce to our people. There will be a trade through Brownsville and Northern Mexico of twelve millions of dollars yearly as soon as these Mexican troubles subside.

(Signed,) P. H. SHERIDAN,
Major General Commanding.

NEW ORLEANS, November 27.—To Gen. U. S. Grant, Commanding the Army:—I am just in receipt of news from Brownsville, and fear that General Sedgwick, commanding the subdistrict of the Rio Grande, will, for some unaccountable and unjustifiable reason, demand of Canales the surrender of the town of Matamoras on the plea of preventing the pillage of the houses of Americans. Gen. Escabedo is in front of the city with about 3,500 men, and Canales offered to surrender if the Liberal Government would pay the merchants who had been supporting him in his illegal and infamous acts. This Escabedo would not agree to.

I very much fear that these merchants have in some way gotten around Sedgwick, who is, I fear, not a strong man, and have prompted him to this action which he contemplates. I have heretofore notified you that these merchants are at the bottom of all the troubles over there. There is perfect harmony between Sedgwick and Escobeda, and no objections are made to the contemplated act of General Sedgwick. Should Sedgwick act as I have some reason to expect, I will at once disapprove his action and relieve him from his command. I have telegraphed to General Sedgwick disapproving his contemplated act, or any action he may have taken in view of it.

I am, General, very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
P. H. SHERIDAN,
Major General U. S. A.

WAR DEPARTMENT, WASHINGTON, Nov. 30, 1866.—To Major General P. H. Sheridan, New Orleans:—Your telegram of the 27th inst. to General Grant in relation to the contemplated action of General Sedgwick, in crossing the Rio Grande, has been submitted to the President, and your action in relation to General Sedgwick is approved, and General Sedgwick's proposed action disapproved. If he should have crossed the Rio Grande, you will relieve him and place him in arrest to await the further order of the President concerning him.

(Signed,) EDWIN M. STANTON.

HEAD QUARTERS DEPARTMENT OF THE GULF, NEW ORLEANS, November 29, 1866.—To General U. S. Grant, Commanding the Armies of the United States:—DEAR GENERAL—The report in the newspapers that General Sedgwick has crossed the Rio Grande is premature. He certainly had not crossed or demanded the surrender of the town on the 23d inst., and I hope he has not made this blunder. There is no doubt in my mind that General Sedgwick has had some influence brought to bear on him. Sedgwick went over to Matamoras and took breakfast with the merchants on the morning that he wrote the letter I endorsed to you. There is something wrong about this transaction, and Escobeda was about to take the place by assault, and was able to do it, when Sedgwick apparently adopted his course to prevent it and save the merchants. The whole affair, should it take place, will not complicate things, and my disapproval of it must have reached Brownsville yesterday, the 29th inst.

I am, General, very respectfully,
P. H. SHERIDAN,
Maj.-Gen. U. S. A.

NEW ORLEANS, December 1, 1866.—To General U. S. Grant.—GENERAL: I have an opportunity to go over to the Rio Grande this evening, and by going I think I can settle the Ortego affair, also the Sedgwick trouble, if any has occurred, and put things on a good footing, but I would like to have your approval of my absence. Affairs are in good condition here, and General Forsyth communicates to me from the Texas frontier no Indian troubles.

(Signed) P. H. SHERIDAN, Major General.

This closes the correspondence submitted to Congress, but it may be added that General Grant approved of the proposed visit, and General Sheridan no doubt reached Brownsville on Tuesday last.

FROM TENNESSEE.

A Message from Governor Brownlow—He Calls Attention to a Speculation of the Tennessee State Treasurer in Loaning Public Funds.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
STATE OF TENNESSEE, Dec. 10, 1866.

Gentlemen of the Senate and House of Representatives:

The Governor, secretary of State and Controller, by your direction, have held for safe-keeping six hundred and nineteen thousand and fifty dollars in United States seven-thirty bonds, known as our school fund, and treated as a sacred fund by you in all your legislation relating thereto. Last week, for the first in my life, I learned that the Treasurer of the State had loaned this fund to one of the Memphis banks without consultation with any of the State officials at the Capital, and even without their knowlege. The Treasurer demanded the funds from the Comptroller, who held it for safe keeping, in a good and sufficient safe, in a fire proof building, claiming it under a law you enacted at your last session requiring the Treasurer to take charge of this identical fund. Your law is either exceedingly tame or its provisions looking to the safe keeping of this second fund have not been complied with, and therefore I invite your early and diligent attention to this subject. I intend no reflection upon the bank, as all banks have a right to borrow and lend money in their legitimate operations, but I protest against the secresy maintained by the Treasurer, who, it seems, loaned out the fund so long ago as the fifth of June, 1866. During the last forty-eight hours I have conversed freely with the Treasurer. His reasons for the transfer is that the fund was not secure where it was. True, there were three National banks in this city with which it could have been divided out; but it is for you, gentlemen, who loaned this money over to the Treasury, to look after its safety. I am alone prompted by a high sense of duty in bringing the subject before you to-day.

Respectfully, &c.,
(Signed,) W. G. BROWNLOW.

Mr. Bingham introduced a bill declaring valid certain proclamations the President issued during the rebellion. Referred to Committee on Judiciary.

Mr. Farquhar introduced a bill to disfranchise all persons in the District of Columbia who accepted offices under the Confederacy. Referred to Committee on Judiciary.

Mr. Perham introduced a resolution instructing the Committee on Invalid Pensions to enquire whether any person in the rebel States, who had been dropped from the pension rolls for participation in the rebellion had been restored, and if so, by what authority. Agreed to.

Mr. Hart introduced a resolution, which was agreed to, calling upon the President to furnish the House with the names of all persons, who were engaged in the rebellion, that have been pardoned since April, 1865, with the rank and position held by them, and whether they had held office under the United States Government prior to April 14th, 1861, and the names of those who endorsed their applications for pardon.

Mr. Spaulding offered a resolution which was agreed to, instructing the Committee on Reconstruction to enquire into the expediency of reporting a joint resolution in relation to the admission of the Senators and Representatives from the rebellious States upon their passage of the Constitutional Amendment and the establishment of a republican form of Government in those States.

Mr. McKee introduced a resolution, which was agreed to, instructing the Committee on Ways and Means to inquire into the expediency of so amending the internal revenue law as to relieve distillers of spirits who manufacture less than twenty thousand barrels per year from the operation of that portion of the law which requires them to have bonded warehouses and to employ an inspector.

Mr. Ross offered a resolution instructing the Committee on Banking and Currency to enquire into the expediency of withdrawing the national bank currency, and of winding up the affairs of the national bank and supplying the country with greenbacks or a similar currency. Laid on the table by 86 yeas to 57 nays.

The Speaker then filled the vacancies in committees. The Committee on Freedmen's Affairs remains the same as the Special Committee last year. Messrs. Elliott, Shallabarger and Thomas were appointed to the Committee on the New Orleans riot, and Messrs. Pike, Farnsworth and Cooper to the Committee to investigate the murder of Union soldiers in South Carolina.

The House took up the special order, which was to report a time for the meeting of Congress. The bill was modified so as to provide an additional session of the 40th Congress, to commence on the 4th of March next. Passed by 124 to 29.

Mr. Lane introduced a resolution, which was agreed to, calling for information relative to the payment of money to the Atcheson and Pike's Peak Railroad, as assignees of the Hannibal and St. Joseph Railroad.

The House considered the President's message.

Mr. Blaine spoke and the House adjourned

FROM VIRGINIA.

Mitchell and the Richmond Dispatch—Constitutional Amendment—The Virginia Express Co.

RICHMOND, Dec. 10.—John Mitchell does not assume any editorial control of the Dispatch. He occasionally contributes to its columns.

The two soldiers of the 11th United States Infantry, charged with attempting to murder John Dickens, were committed for trial to-day.

The House has referred that portion of the Governor's message relating to the Constitutional Amendment to the Committee on Resolutions.

The bill incorporating the Virginia Express Company passed by twenty-four majority.

A resolution was adopted for a recess from the 20th inst. to the 3d of January.

The Fenian Trials—The Plea of Counsel.

SWEETSBURG, C. E., Dec. 10.—The Court opened this morning. George Crawford and thirteen other prisoners were arraigned. Mr. Devlin, who appeared as counsel for all, filed special pleas to each indictment against the jurisdiction of the Canadian Court in the cases of those, charged as British subjects with high treason, and against the jurisdiction of the Court in the cases of those who are American citizens, in reference to whom the British Parliament only can legislate, and a plea in bar of those charged as British subjects and are American citizens, and that no statute of Great Britain prohibited the ingress or egress of American citizens into Canada prior to the 8th of June, or that there was any Canadian statute prior to the 15th of August, prohibiting or restraining any assemblage of persons, for the purpose of drilling, or collecting, or carrying arms and prisoners, cannot be tried under the expost facto laws. The counsel is sanguine he will be able to make good his pleas, and it would seem natural that the prisoners convicted at Toronto have to be discharged.

Disastrous Fire in Texas.

GALVESTON, December 10.—A fire in Hindley's block destroyed the stores of Evans & Co., and Watson, Wells & Warder, wholesale grocers. Loss $120,000 on stock. Greenlaw & Black lost by removal from $3,000 to $5,000. It is thought the fire was the work of an incendiary, with an object to rob the First National Bank, located in the same building. The Fire Department prevented a more disastrous conflagration. Thieves ransacked the telegraph office and offices adjoining, in hopes of finding plunder.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

(ADDITIONAL LOCAL NEWS ON THIRD PAGE.)

To Fifth and Ninth Ward Subscribers.

We have made new arrangements for the delivery of our paper in the Fifth and Ninth wards. Any subscriber in either ward failing to receive the Gazette will please leave word at our counting room, or at Alderman Taylor's office, or at the residence of our carrier, Mr. Cronin, Pike street. All moneys due for papers delivered heretofore, must be paid to Mr. Cronin, who alone is authorized to collect in those neighborhoods for us.

Man Killed in the Fifth Ward.

Yesterday afternoon, an accident of a distressing nature occurred near the Union Depot, in the Fifth ward, which resulted in the death of a young man named Joseph R. White. It appears White, who was employed as fireman on engine No. 316 of the Pennsylvania Railroad, was standing on the track waiting for his engine to approach him on the south track, while watching its coming, engine No. 69 came down on the north track, and struck him with the bumper, knocking him down on the track, the wheels passing over him, crushing his right leg and arm so severely, that he expired a few hours after the occurrence, at the boarding house of Mrs. Gier, No. 901 Penn street. Mr. White was a young man of excellent character, and formerly resided in Connellsville, Fayette county. Coroner Clawson will hold an adjourned inquest on the body at the office of Alderman Taylor, in the Fifth ward, on Wednesday evening at seven o'clock.

Heavy Robbery—Fifteen Hundred Dollars Worth Stolen.

The clothing establishment of Sinsheimer & Kaufman, in the Cochrane House building, Steubenville, Ohio, was entered on Sunday night at a late hour and robbed of fifteen hundred dollars in clothing and money. The thieves effected an entrance through a window in the rear of the house by prying off the hinges of the shutter. The goods taken consisted chiefly of ready made men and boys' winter garments and a considerable amount of furnishing goods, cloths and cassimeres. A reward of three hundred dollars is offered by the firm for the apprehension of the robbers.

District Court.

In the District Court, this morning, Judge Williams on the bench, the case of Hiram Carman vs. Robert Hervey, et. al., was taken up. This was action for trespass to recover the value of a raft of lumber, amounting to $1,700. The plaintiff alleged that an employee engaged in cutting lumber for him, "run off" a raft and sold it to defendants at Terentum. It was further alleged that plaintiff claimed the lumber, but that defendants put him off from time to time, and the suit was therefore brought to recover the value thereof. Not concluded at the hour of adjournment.

The Oil Well Torpedo Cases.

Our readers will remember the suits brought some time since by E. A. L. Roberts, patentee, against certain parties in the oil regions for infringing his patent for Torpedoes for exploding in oil wells. The Court ordered preliminary injunctions to issue, restraining such parties from further infringement, until final hearing and further orders. The bonds required by the court have been filed, and the injunctions issued. For the information of all parties interested, we subjoin a copy of the injunction against Alexander Hamar, of Franklin. The others are similar in form:

THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
WESTERN DISTRICT OF PENNSYLVANIA.

The President of the United States, To Alexander Hamar, and to his Agents and servants, and all others acting by and under his authority, and each of them, greeting:

WHEREAS, Edward A. L. Roberts, lately exhibited his bill of complaint against the said Alexander Hamar, as defendant in the Circuit Court of the United States, for the Western District of Pennsylvania, before the Judges of said Court; in which said bill is set forth that Letters Patent, of the United States bearing date the 25th day of April, A. D., 1865, were granted to the said Edward A. L. Robert's, for the term of seventeen years, from the 25th day of April A. D., 1865, for a new and useful improvement in exploding Torpedoes in Artesian Wells.

That the said Alexander Hamar is now, and has been for some time past, constructing and using the said patented improvement in violation of the exclusive right of the said complainant, as secured to him, the said complainant, by the aforesaid Letters Patent.

Wherefore the said complainant, among other things, prayed that the said defendant, Alexander Hamar, might be enjoined from any further construction, sale, or use, in any manner, of the improvement set forth and described in said Letters Patent.

And whereas the said defendant having filed his answer in this case, and the parties having been heard by their counsel upon the bill and answer, and affidavits filed, it was ordered by the said Court that an injunction be awarded to restrain the defendant, his servants, agents, and all other persons acting by and under his authority, from making, using, or vending to others to be used, any one or more torpedoes substantially like, or similar in construction and mode of operation to the torpedo described in the Letters Patent of said complainant in the said bill of complaint mentioned. The said injunction to issue on the filing by the said complainant of a bond in the penalty of five thousand dollars, with sufficient sureties conditioned to indemnify the said defendant for all damages which he may sustain by reason of said injunction, if the said bill of complaint, upon the final hearing thereof, shall be dismissed, or if previous thereto the said Court shall dissolve the said injunction. The said injunction to be continued until the final hearing of this case and the further order of the Court.

And whereas the said complainant has filed in Court his bond with sufficient sureties in said sum of five thousand dollars conditioned as aforesaid.

Now, therefore, in consideration of the premises, you, Alexander Hamar, your agents, servants, and each and every of you, and all other persons acting by and under your authority, are hereby strictly commanded and enjoined under the penalty of ten thousand dollars, that you and each of you do absolutely desist and abstain from making, constructing, using or vending to others to be used, any torpedo or torpedoes or other machine, apparatus or device for exploding in oil wells, containing the improvement or invention, or any part thereof, described and specified in said complainant's said letters patent, or substantially like or similar in construction and mode of operation to the torpedo described in said letters patent; and that you do absolutely desist and abstain from doing any act or thing to infringe the said letters patent of the said complainant, or otherwise to injure or impair the exclusive right of the complainant to the invention and improvement therein specified and described, until the final hearing of the said case and the further order of the court.

Witness the Honorable Salmon Portland Chase, Esquire, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, at the Court House, in the Western District of Pennsylvania, this fifth day of December, 1866.

By the Court:
(Signed,) H. SPROUL, Clerk.

The Story of a Dyspeptic Stomach.

Who can tell of the agonies and tortures of the dyspeptic, so well as himself. Who can describe the dreadful despondency, the hard rolling and tumbling of crude food which, instead of being digested and made fit to be absorbed into the blood, only serves as an irritant and a torment to the miserable dyspeptic's stomach. Only half digested, it goes into the blood charged with hurtful elements which ought to be elimated from the body, producing other diseases as formidable, and as painful, as that which was the original cause, namely, the dyspepsia itself. No wonder that gout and rheumatism, and asthma and cancer, and scrofula and tumors, and aching limbs and torpid liver, and inactive kidneys, are the baleful results. It is just in such diseases as these that Dr. Keyser's Blood Searcher is an infallible remedy. It will work out of the system, atom by atom, the noxious and hurtful materials which clog and impede the performance of every function. The Dyspepsia itself will yield to Dr. Keyser's Blood Searcher. The stomach will resume its lost and wonted vigor, and a healthful sanguinary tide will again fill the veins and arteries with material to rebuild the crumbling and decaying constitution. Patience and perseverance truly are required in proportion to the obstinacy of the malady, which must be watched and attacked until entirely subdued. Hundreds and thousands of persons are now suffering with seemingly incurable chronic diseases who could be restored to health by the use of Dr. Keyser's Blood Searcher.

It will as surely work out of the system the noxious particles that bring on disease and sickness as water will put out fire—and it will remove, in like manner, the dregs and other remains of former acute diseases. Why do we have, after diptheria, and measles, and small pox, and other maladies, sore eyes, and swellings, and partial deafness? Are they not the result of impaired and weakened structure which has become so because of some failure on the part of those emunctories of the human economy, which ought to carry out of it the obstructing material? Is not this fact patent to the common sense of every one? And is not the resort usually to some so-called blood medicine, and that, too, because the family doctor has advised to "let it alone." In Dr. Keyser's Blood Searcher you have a safe medicine for these kind of cases. It is, also, a sure medicine; harmless and gradual in its effects, restoring tone and energy to the sleeping or dormant functions, and giving health and elasticity where before was inaction, disease and pain. Ask for Dr. Keyser's Blood Searcher, 140 Wood street, and take no other. $1 per bottle; six for $5. If your druggist does not keep it, write to Dr. Keyser, and he will forward by express. Consultation rooms 120 Penn street.

Cool Theft.

About nine o'clock on Saturday evening Mr. F. T. Lusk visited the residence of William Reiter, at the corner of Hancock street and Duquesne way. He hung a valuable brown sacque overcoat in the hall, but about fifteen minutes afterwards, when he went to get it, he found it missing. In the pocket of the overcoat was a pair of kid gloves and a white pocket handkerchief, with the name of F. T. Lusk stamped on one corner; also, a door key and a morocco pocket book, with the name of F. T. Lusk in gilt letters on the outside. The following valuable papers were also in the pockets: Check No. — for $326 25 on Ira B. McVay & Co., drawn by Stephen Jarvis in favor of the Mutual Life Insurance Company, of which Mr. Lusk is agent; also, No. 1,340 for $60,25 on the Merchants' and Manufacturers', drawn by Day, McAboy & Spang, in favor of F. T. Lusk. Several premium notes, payable to order of the same company. There were several notes payable to F. T. Lusk, or order on delivery of policies in the above named company. No. 77 U. S. General Accident Policy blanks, and countersigned by F. T. Lusk. Besides these were twelve tickets, for one, three, five and ten days, on the registered Railroad Passenger Assurance Company, of Hartford, Connecticut, blank, but countersigned by H. T. Sherry, Secretary. Payment on all the checks and tickets has been stopped, and persons should keep a sharp look out if they desire to escape being victimized.

False Pretences.

John D. Rarich yesterday made information before Alderman Taylor, charging Henry W. Reismeyer with obtaining money under false pretences. The parties reside in Duquesne borough. On the 29th of September last the accused obtained the note of deponent for sixty-two dollars. The amount of the note was subsequently paid by Mr. Rarich, but Reismeyer made some excuse for not returning the note. The true reason became apparent a few days since, when a neighbor of Mr. Rarich presented the note to him for redemption, he having purchased it from Reismeyer before the latter collected the sixty-two dollars. The accused was arrested and committed for a further hearing on Wednesday afternoon.

Skating.—Get out your skates and prepare your skating costumes, for the time of gliding steel has at last come. To-day, if the weather and the ice be fit, as they certainly will be, judging from the condition of affairs last evening, the Central Park will open the ball with a grand time. To know whether the season has actually commenced, examine the bulletin at Pittock's, or watch for the sign on the Citizens' Passenger Railway cars. When the gates are opened the announcement will be dully made by both means.

More Feminine War.—Margaret Waldier and Mary Neinberger live near each other in the Ninth ward. On the 4th inst. they became quarrelsome, and the latter, as is alleged, struck Mrs. Waldier. The aggrieved woman appeared before Alderman Taylor and preferred a charge of assault and battery. A warrant was issued.

Extensive Robbery in Allegheny—A Clerk Charged with Robbing his Employers of $3,000 in Goods and Money.

The proprietors of one of the most extensive dry goods establishments on Federal street, Allegheny City, became cognizant of the fact, a short time since, that they were being robbed almost nightly by some party to them unknown. At first they missed small articles, such as bolts of ribbons, then parcels of rich lace, and finally costly silk and velvet dress patterns, together with small sums of money. Keeping their knowledge of the robberies perfectly quiet they resorted to almost every ingenious device to catch the thief. Notwithstanding all their precautions the goods still continued to disappear at irregular intervals up until Thursday night of last week, when money and goods to the amount of $3,000 was taken from the store. Alderman Nicholson, of this city, was apprised of the fact immediately, and the police were at once set to "work the affair up." A rigid investigation was also instituted by the firm, whose suspicions were attracted to one of the clerks of the house by several little circumstances that came to light during Friday, pointing to him as the guilty one. Officer W. J. Richardson was put in possession of the information thus obtained, and taking the clue he followed the matter up until he found a large quantity of the missing goods in the possession of the suspected party, who was instantly placed under arrest and conveyed to the office of the magistrate above mentioned, where he entered bail in the sum of $4,000 for a hearing at three o'clock P. M. to-day. The young man who is thus placed in such an unpleasant predicament has hitherto enjoyed the entire confidence of his employers, having been entrusted by them with full control of their whole business for days together. He has also occupied an enviable position in the church of which he was a member, nothing of a disparaging nature having ever been brought against him before, his character for probity being above suspicion. Connected with one of the most respectable families of our sister community who are perfectly overwhelmed by the magnitude of this new misfortune, we withhold the names of all the parties connected with this affair for the present through prudential motives, at least until the after the hearing, when we will doubtless give them to the public.

Consolidation—Meeting of the Committee.

The Committee appointed by the Board of Trade, at the meeting of December 1st, assembled at the Board of Trade Rooms, Monday afternoon, December 10th, at 3 o'clock. Major W. Wade was in the chair. The members present were: Major Wm Wade, F. R. Brunot, T. J. Bigham, David McCandless, J. M. Cooper, J. R. Hunter. Absent—W. M. Gormly, J. P. Tanner, D. C. Brigham.

On motion, J. R. Hunter was elected Secretary.

On motion, the names of R. B. Carnahan, of Birmingham, and J. Heron Foster were added to the Committee.

On motion of F. R. Brunot it was unanimously

Resolved, That Messrs. Wade, Bigham, Carnaghan, Brigham and Foster be appointed a committee to prepare and submit an Act of Consolidation, which, when approved by the Committee and the Board of Trade, shall be transmitted to our members of the Legislature, with a request that their influence may be used to effect its passage.

Resolved, That in the opinion of this Committee the lines of the consolidated city should include an area of about ten miles east and west, by eight miles north and south.

Resolved, That provision should be made in the bill whereby lands used for agricultural purposes shall be only taxed as such, and shall be exempt from tax for lighting, water, paving and cleaning streets, and police, and that the existing indebtedness of the several coporations to be included, should be so equitably adjusted as not to impose their obligations on the communities not now liable for them.

Resolved, That the said bill shall contain a clause requiring it to be submitted to a vote of the citizens included within the new corporation.

The Committee then adjourned, to meet again at the call of the Chairman, Major Wade. The meeting was harmonious in its action, may be productive of accomplishing the object of its labors.

Fight on Fifth Street.

Yesterday about noon, a disgraceful disturbance occurred at Snyder's eating house, on Fifth street, opposite the Court House. It appears that officer Stewart, of Manchester, in company with William Carson, went into the eating house and called for dinner. Before eating, the officer went out and brought in John Bothwell and John Conly, for whom he also ordered dinner. The dinners first ordered came down from the kitchen, and were spread on a small table, when Carson proposed that the whole party should eat at one table. Snyder objected, when Carson commenced to move the desks himself. Snyder interfered, when words ensued, during which Carson was ordered out of the house. He refused to go, when Snyder and his bar-keeper attempted to eject him. Blows followed, and during the scuffle Snyder was struck on the nose with a cup, and severely injured. Carson was also injured, having received a severe cut on the head and a black eye. The tables were overturned, dishes broken, and eatables scattered about in a promiscuous manner. The barkeeper, and a little son of Snyder's, were also struck by some flying missiles and were badly hurt. Officers Cupples, Scott, McMullin and Chief Hague, were sent to the scene of the disturbance, and arrested Carson and Bothwell, but Conley escaped. An information was made against the parties for disorderly conduct by Snyder, and they were required to enter bail for a hearing to-morrow.

A Desperate Chap.

James Smith and James Prendergast went yesterday forenoon into Bechtole's saloon, on Diamond alley, and ordered a dozen oysters each. The oysters were furnished and eaten, after which the pay was demanded. This demand was dishonored in a most abusive manner, Prendergast in particular making very threatening demonstrations toward the proprietor of the saloon. The latter quietly let the matter drop for the time being. Meantime the two belligerent men lay down upon a table, and went, or pretended to go to sleep. Officer Gordon, of the special police, was called in to arrest the two, but considering the appearance of the disorderly sleepers, he determined not to undertake the arrest alone. He therefore summoned aid from the Mayor's office, and was joined by officers Moon and Cupples. The former shook Prendergast, who immediately sprang off the table and struck at the officer. His blow was ineffectual, and he and Smith were arrested. Prendergast, however, resisted most desperately, fighting, striking, kicking, and using every means known to the rough persuasion. Officer Cupples, seeing the desperado reach into his pocket, let go of Smith, and seized Prendergast's hand, just as he drew it forth, armed with a most villainous-looking brass knuckler. This was taken away from him, and at length, after much fighting, he and his comrade were safely lodged in the lock-up, where they still remain.

Died from Their Injuries.

The collision that occurred on the Western Pennsylvania Railroad at Natrona, near the Soda Works, on Friday afternoon, has had fatal results, two young men named David Wonderly and James Miller having since died from injuries received at that time. Wonderly was about twenty-seven years of age, and resided with his father, John Wonderly, near Karne's salt works, Harrison township. He was formerly a member of Colonel Clark's regiment, but after the regiment was discharged from the service he joined the marine brigade, organized for operations on the Ohio and Mississippi river, in which he served until the close of the war. James Miller was the eldest son of Joseph Miller, postmaster at Freeport, and unmarried. The remains of the deceased were interred yesterday, but we are not informed whether a previous inquest had been held or not. Coroner Clawson, however, was not notified of the occurrence.

More of the Express Robbery—Another Arrest.

Officer Hazen, of Brownsville, arrived in the city last evening, bringing with him Mr. Warwick Scott, a brother of George W. Stott, whose arrest at Greensboro, by Officer Seth Wilmot, we noticed yesterday. Mr. Scott was barkeeper at the American Hotel in Brownsville. After the Express robbery he made the statement publicly and repeatedly, that his brother George had the money that had been stolen. Further than this he refused to say. A warrant for his arrest was issued by a Brownsville magistrate, on a charge of being an accessory after the fact. He was accordingly arrested by Officer Hazen, as stated, and arrived here last evening. He had a partial hearing before Alderman Strain, and was held to bail in the sum of $5,000 for a further hearing.

Now is the Time for the ladies to prepare their presents for Christmas, in slippers, tidies, pincushions, &c.

Braid, embroidery and silk stamping done, and stamps for sale. Also chemise and gown yokes, wrappers and robes stamped from the French perforated patterns.

Also, a model for cutting ladies' and children's dresses, at the celebrated Weed Sewing Machine Office, No. 112 Grant street. See advertisement in another column.

That's What's the Matter.—Why is it that the sale of the Wheeler & Wilson Machine exceeds that of all the other machines combined? Simply because ten years' trial of them has demonstrated their superiority so clearly that no prudent house wife will purchase or use any other. For particulars as to price, &c., of these machines, call on the agents, No. 27 Fifth street. They will give you every information on the subject.

Exhibition.—The teachers and pupils of the Third Ward Public Schools of Allegheny city, have made extensive preparations to give a grand literary entertainment at Excelsior Hall, corner of Lacock and Federal street, this evening at half past seven o'clock. A programme of rare excellence has been arranged for the occasion, and all who attend may expect an evening of enjoyment.

Interfering with an Officer.—Geo. Crout appeared before Alderman Strain yesterday and made oath against J. S. Noder and Sarah, his wife, for assault and battery, and against the following named persons for interfering with him—an officer—in the discharge of his duty: John Mood, Jas. Stephens, Jas. Morrow and Jas. Stoughton. Warrants were issued for the arrest of the accused. Officer Seth Wilmot, the indefatigable, went in quest of them last evening, and doubtless ere this they are in durance.

CHARTIERS VALLEY RAILROAD.

The sale of this railroad having been confirmed by the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, J. EDGAR THOMPSON and JOHN GRAHAM, the trustees named in the mortgage, yesterday made conveyance of the property to WILLIAM J. HOWARD, and the deed will at once be put on record.

The Washington Reporter recently made some statements respecting the future prospects of the road, which we find upon inquiry are not warranted by the facts. JAY COOKE has no interest in the purchase of the road, having disposed to other parties of the bonds he held. He has, consequently, nothing to protect by ensuring the completion of the enterprise. It is probable a new company will be organized, and in that event it cannot fail, but the inhabitants along the route will be called on to exemplify their zeal in behalf of the enterprise by subscribing to the new stock. Whether or not cars will be running in eighteen months, as our contemporary conjectures, will depend as much upon the promptness and liberality of these subscriptions as on the friendly dispositions of the party into whose hands the work has legally passed.

We may add, that the completion of the road would be of considerable value to Pittsburgh, opening as it would direct and easy communication through a prosperous district of country, and shortening materially the distance between this point and Wheeling, and all places beyond. This district was formerly tributary, almost exclusively to this city; but the construction of the Hempfield Railroad turned the current of business the other way, where it must stay until this link shall be completed, when it will turn back with increased volume. We trust, therefore that whenever an appeal shall be made to our citizens for aid in this undertaking it will be extended with a readiness, and to a degree, its relative importance demands.

THE COAL TRADE.

In consequence of the heavy fall in price of anthracite coal at Philadelphia, New York and elsewhere, many owners of collieries and companies engaged in constructing new coal railroads, have been constrained to reduce the tariff of wages. In the collieries the reduction was not in proportion to the depreciation in value of coal, and left quite problematical a margin of profit for the employees. But, as a result of these reductions of wages, a number of formidable strikes have occurred, the workmen protesting that at the rate they have to pay for provisions they cannot support their families on the wages offered.

Of course, if a man has labor, manual, or mental, or mixed to sell, it is his prerogative to determine the conditions on which he will part with it. In this respect labor stands in the same position as any other description of property. But employers have an equal option to buy labor or not, as their interests shall dictate. It is not in reason that they should agree to pay a rate of compensation which must certainly entail a heavy and constant loss. It is better for them to suspend operations, and wait for the exhaustion of the stock of coal in market, and the access of price which must result from a diminished supply. But can the workmen wait? Can they support their families without any wages at all, as well as with wages which are not fully up to their demands? Have they been so provident during the prevalence of high prices as to lay by a sufficiency for this period of pressure? These are practical questions, the solution of which cannot be pushed aside.

If the men who are engaged in these pursuits cannot arrive at terms with their employers, they will naturally crowd, to some extent, at least, into other departments. The tendency of such movements is necessarily to lower wages in the departments thus invaded, by creating an over-supply. This is one of the methods by which the labor market finds its adjustment in various pursuits.

THE CAUSES OF INSANITY.

The causes of insanity are a sore puzzle to those who look for some easy method of solving one of the most intricate questions with which medical men are called upon to deal. They look into books treating specially of Insanity, and into the reports of Hospitals for the Insane, and find long lists of names where they had hoped to find a few principal facts, not remembering that those who made such lists or tables are compelled to rely for their information, in the great majority of cases, on the relatives or friends, whose feelings too often warp their judgment and powers of observation. These lists are almost uniformly headed "assigned causes" of insanity, and subsequent observations and examinations enable the physician to correct any error, but that correction for obvious reasons can not be shown in the tables.

Moreover, very few cases of insanitw can strictly be said to have had their origin in one cause simply; more frequently the result is to be traced back, two or more causes acting in conjunction, or at successive periods, and herein we find the necessity of the distinction, so often made by medical writers, into pre-disposing and exciting causes.

The pre-disposing are those which acting through a longer or shorter space of time, tend to disorder the nervous system to such an extent, that some new or exciting cause being added, the attack of insanity is fully and often suddenly developed.

Like consumption and some other diseases, insanity is transmitted from one generation to another, and thus many individuals inherit a constitution which contains germs, easily developed by various favoring influences, into a morbid growth and often into deadly fruit. Many persons, who may not be insane, transmit to their children, as the result of their irregular lives or bad practices, constitutions pre-disposed to various nervous disorders, and among these insanity is too often to be found. It is a matter, not by any means difficult to prove, that the follies and vices of one generation may be traced in the diseases of another and succeeding generation. If, as the most accurate investigations have clearly shown, the greater proportion of idiots and imbeciles are to be traced to the drunken habits of one or both parents, it is no forced inference to draw, that the nervous constitution, pre-disposing to insanity, may also be traced to a similar origin. But, even where no hereditary tendency may be found, the course of life, the indulgence in various improper habits and practices, the constant excitement in which some live, and the irregular manner of eating and sleeping, with the singular disregard of all hygienic laws, which many persons persistently maintain, will surely place any constitution in a state very unfavorable to resist the attacks or encroachments of disease. Great surprise is often manifested at the apparently sudden outbreak of insanity in any particular individual, but could it be known that, for months or even years, that individual had been addicted to vices which have gradually undermined the nervous system, the wonder would be that it has not occurred sooner. Could those who have had the opportunity of investigating cases of insanity, tell only a small part of what they have discovered, men would stand aghast at the fearful revelation. Unfortunately men do not give heed to these admonitions, but go on with the impression, that their minds or their nervous system, are strong enough to resist such influences. But though the system may thus be pre-disposed by various influences, some directly acting cause, producing a vivid impression, comes in to hasten the final catastrophe. The train may be all laid but the spark of fire is required to effect the explosion.

Again, writers divide the causes of insanity into moral, or those arising from the passions, emotions and affections, and physical, or those arising from some bodily disease or disorder, and these may also be either pre-disposing or exciting. For example, an individual has been for a length of time suffering from some bodily disease which has seriously undermined the health, when a vivid moral impression may be made in some sudden and unexpected manner, and the mind gives way, or the reverse condition may occur. A moral cause, steadily acting, may produce bodily disease, or unpleasant news has often taken away the appetite, disordered the stomach and caused sleepless nights, and often a long lingering fever or other illness, and thus a moral affection may originate a physical disease. Nothing will hasten an attack of insanity more rapidly than continued loss of sleep, from the deleterious influence it exerts over all the bodily functions. He who can secure sound, regular sleep for six or eight hours each day may much more surely count on good bodily and mental health than he who passes anxious days and sleepless nights. Any one who has felt the exceeding discomfort arising from loss of sleep for one or two successive nights, may readily conceive what influence may be exerted on the mind and bodily system by a continuance of such loss, and the wear and tear induced by constant daily work superadded. Individuals in this state of distress and discomfort, unable to account for their miserable feelings, take to reading the Bible or frequenting religious meetings, in the hope of relief, but it comes not in this way, and they persevere with more agonizing importunity until the mind gives way, and the friends lay the blame on religion. The instinctive feeling of all men in distress is to turn to religion for help and relief, too often overlooking the all important fact that sound physical health is essential to right views of religion, and that the advice of a physician would, properly followed, speedily dispel their uneasy and unhealthy sensations, and qualify them more fully to discharge their moral and religious, as well as their social, duties. We commend the principle explained in the following extract from the Report of Dr. KIRKBRIDE, of the Pennsylvania Hospital for the Insane of Philadelphia, (distinguished for his experience and his ripe judgment,) to the candid consideration of every one:

> "A young man of very moderate mental capacity, little education, and accustomed to a laborious occupation, from too much confinement at his business finds his health failing, and gives up his employment for a few months, to recruit. At the end of that time, although not well, he is able to return to work, but then discovers that the changes in the times makes it impossible for him to find anything to do. His means being exhausted, his body weak, without his customary exercise, his mind became gradually in a morbid state, when some excitement from Miller's prophecy occurring his neighborhood, he immediately attempts to study the subject, and to ascertain its truth from close reading of the Bible—an investigation utterly unsuited for his capacity under any circumstances—and the difficulties he encounters at the very threshhold, lead to a violent attack of mania. The disease was attributed to Miller's prophecy, or to religious excitement, but neither of these causes would give a proper idea of the origin of the case. Before being excited on that subject, the patient's mind was ready to be overturned by any abstruse or exciting matter that might be presented to it. Without his loss of employment this would not have occurred, and without the enfeebled health, which accompanied it, his attempted investigation might have been harmless." M. D.

ENGLAND'S TROUBLE.

Some of the London journals urge such precautionary measures for the preservation of order, not in Ireland, but in England itself, as to raise at least a doubt if Fenianism is the only danger that confronts the British government. They demand a strict scrutiny into the extent of the Fenian organization in England, and that strong guards be placed over all depots of arms and ammunition. It is possible this vigilance is designed merely to forestall and frustrate any movements that might be attempted by the large Irish population domiciled in England, and of which London contains more than Dublin. But it is, also, possible that under cover of looking after Fenians, which would be popular with the bulk of Englishmen, some thing more is intended. The champions of a liberal suffrage, taking advantage of the difficulties which environ the government, and the aristocracy which it represents, have become so bold as to abash the rulers. Popular demonstrations which, in former years, would have been promptly suppressed, have been unwillingly permitted. The royal troops, hitherto vaunted as the instruments of repression, have been withdrawn to their barracks, and kept there, as the only means of preventing an outbreak, the end or which could not be divined. Whether any connection actually exists between the Reform and the Fenian movements, there is certainly ground for apprehending that co operation might be established should a serious collision occur of the government forces with either of these elements. Both are resolved to wring concessions of high importance from the crown. Any distress the government may fall into is their common opportunity, and may bring them into alliance.

MR. STEVENS AND THE UNITED STATES SENATORSHIP.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6, 1866.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—In your fair and impartial article upon the United States Senatorship, in your issue of the 3d inst., you say:

"Mr. Stevens is a magnetic character—a born leader—and if he was younger and less infirm, would distance all his competitors. In capacity to deal with ideas, he does not surpass Mr. Williams, but, is greatly superior to him in that prime qualification of statesmanship, the ability to manage men and affairs. He has a few members instructed for him, but is not likely to become formidable."

Mr. Stevens is truly the character you describe, and it is indeed a pity that so grand a man should ever grow old. But I beg you to believe that he is not that "infirm" old man he is so often represented as being. In conversation with him a day or two ago, I was struck by the vigor of the "great commoner," as he is by so many called. His voice is firm, his eye is clear, and powers of intellect unabated. Men who talk about his physical weakness would be surprised to see how vigorous he is. He has as much endurance in him to-day as twenty men I could name in the House, who have not yet seen their three score years. There is nothing in his infirmities which should stand in the way of his election. At the last of the session, which closed in dog-days, he remained at his post for twenty-four consecutive hours—snatching now and then a cat-nap on a lounge in the House or the cloak room—and in the morning walked to his lodgings as smartly as many a young man. As leader of the House to day, he is as keen, ready, alert and full of resources as I have ever seen him. In that "prime qualification of statesmanship" which you grant him so gracefully and freely, he still shines pre-eminent.

As to his strength as a candidate, I think you are mistaken. You underrate it. Mr. Stevens could to-day command twenty-six votes in the Legislature, and I do not think there is another of the candidates who could do the same; none, certainly, better.

Of the men before the people of Pennsylvania for the Senatorship, he seems to me to stand first. He has a national and most enviable reputation. He is a high spirited, firm, honest, old man. He is not afraid to follow whither his principles lead him. No truer man ever lived. The dishonored seat of Mr. Cowan will receive from him more dignity than it will impart. He would be master of the situation. However wise, dignified, able and patriotic the other candidates may be—and I cheerfully award them high places in these respects—he stands their equal, at least in all these. And who among them all has been so tried and faithful found as he? He is fully up to Allegheny county high-water mark. His election would send a thrill of joy through every patriotic heart in the land, and would be hailed with triumph in both houses of Congress. ALLEGHENY.

AN AUTUMN SUGGESTION.—Now, as heavy fogs arise and searching winds commence to blow; now, as the human body, exhausted like inanimate nature by the heats of summer, begins to wilt and droop; now, ere the inclement winter makes its trying onset: NOW is the time for a preparatory course of the best acclimating medicine in existence,

HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

Fever and Ague is rampant in all parts of the country. Quinine, the physicians admit, will not quell the phase of the disease which at present pervades the entire West. It is well that it is so, for the remedy (so-called) is deadlier than the malady. But if quinine is inefficient in intermittent fevers, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS is irresistible. It would be safe to make a contract, under heavy penalties, that any given "Fever-and-Ague District" should be exempted from the disorder for any particular time, provided every inhabitant would take the BITTERS according to directions, during the term of the contract. There has never been an instance in medicine which this sterling invigorant and anti-febrile medicine has failed to ward off the complaint, when taken duly as a protection against malaria. Hundreds of physicians have abandoned all the official specifics and now prescribe this harmless vegetable tonic, and nothing else, as a preventive and cure for all the forms of chills and fever. Vigor is the thing most needful in these cases as well as in dyspepsia and nervous affections, and HOSTETTER'S BITTERS are the safest, surest, and most wholesome strengthening preparation that human skill has yet concocted.

WETHERILL & SLOAN'S
LIGHT EQUAL TO GAS!
PATENT
Gas Condensing Burners,
Can be used on any Lamp, and Dispense entirely with Chimneys. The flame produced by these Burners spreads out similar to that of Gas. The construction is such that the smoke is confined in a Gas Condensing Chamber, and is wholly converted into flame. The burner does not depend directly upon the wick for its light, but burns the smoke which is produced therefrom, and Burns Less Oil Than Chimney Lamps,
And produces a more Brilliant Light than any other burner in the market.
STATE AND COUNTY RIGHTS FOR SALE.
Having purchased the right of disposing of the above Burners in Allegheny County, parties wishing to examine or purchase, can be accommodated by calling at my office, 134 WATER STREET, above Smithfield, Pittsburgh.

IN TEN HOURS,
With Eight Men!
SWORD'S STEAM POWER
BRICK MACHINE,
MANUFACTURED BY
The Pittsburgh Brick Machine
AND
BRICK MANUFACTURING CO.,
For the Eastern, Middle and South-Eastern States.
THE MACHINE IS SELF-TEMPERING, costs only $1,500, (right to use being proportioned to the extent and population of territory,) is run by an 8 inch cylinder engine, works all kinds of clay, makes SUPERB BRICK, pressed in steel moulds, requires only eight men to dig the clay, feed the grinder, take away the brick and hake them in the yard, and makes brick as fast as you wish to run the engine. In our own yard, our rate of making is from 45 to 50 a minute. We claim this to be the best PAYING Machine in use.
A machine may be seen in operation in our yard at Glenwood four miles above the city, on the north side of the Monongahela river, reached by the Connellsville Railroad.
Machine, Yard, County and State Rights for sale.
For full information, apply for circulars, in person or by mail, at the office.

AGENTS WANTED
FOR THE MOST POPULAR
AND BEST SELLING SUBSCRIPTION BOOKS PUBLISHED.
We are the most extensive publishers in the United States, (having six houses,) and therefore can afford to sell books cheaper and pay agents a more liberal commission than any other company.
Our books do not pass through the hands of General Agents, (as nearly all other subscription works do,) therefore we are enabled to give our canvassers the extra per cent. which is usually allowed to General Agents. Experienced canvassers will see the advantages of dealing directly with the publishers.
Our series embraces the most popular works on all subjects of importance, and is selling rapidly both North and South.
Old agents, and all others, who want the best paying agencies, will please send for circulars and see our terms, and compare them and the character of our works with those of other publishers. Address

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

(ADDITIONAL LOCAL NEWS ON FIRST PAGE.)

A Mixed Trouble.

Yesterday morning Eliza Slater, a colored woman, came before Mayor Morrison and made information against Arthur Anderson, a man of about her own hue, charging him with having stolen a valuable gold watch from her sister, Mrs. Mary Reynolds. A warrant was issued and Anderson arrested by officer Nixon. Shortly aftewards Mrs. Slater appeared again at the office, accompanied by her mother and Mrs. Reynolds. The latter was in a high state of indignation against her sister, charging her with poking her nose into business that in no way concerned her, and asserting decisively that no larceny had been committed at all,—that Anderson had only taken the watch from its place for a few minutes, and had returned it to her while the information for larceny was being made against him. The establishment of this latter fact of course necessitated the withdrawal of the charge that had been preferred.]

Mrs. Slater, however, was determined not to have started out in the matter quite in vain, so she proceeded immediately to make information against Anderson on her own account, for disorderly conduct. Mrs. Slater is a young married woman who lives on First street, in this city. She went to visit her sister who resides with Mrs. Wagner, on Rebecca street. There she found Anderson, a married man, who resides in Snyders Hollow. Anderson was inclined to be disorderly and went up stairs to the room of Mrs. Reynolds, where his disorderly inclinations got full sway, and he took down the watch from above the mantle piece and on a remonstrance from Mrs. R. caught her and "banged" her violently against the door. Mrs. Slater interfered and then Anderson turned ferociously upon her and made divers suggestive demonstrations as if he would damage her. The accused had no rebutting testimony to offer and save by a sullen, swaggering challenge to his prosecutrix to prove that she wasn't all he called her, made no defense. The Mayor imposed a fine of $5 upon him, and in default of the wherewith to pay the requirement, Anderson was "sent up" for five days.

Criminal Court.

This Court met at nine o'clock yesterday morning, Judge Stowe presiding.

The jury in the case of Mary Martin, colored, tried on Friday for the larceny of a wallet, brought in a verdict of guilty, with a recommendation to mercy.

The next case taken up was that of Curtis S. Haven, indicted for aggravated assault and battery upon John Rahe. The defendant and Rahe took passage on the night train on the Pennsylvania Railroad, on the night of the October election, for East Liberty. Some political discussion ensued, ending in blows. Haven, it is alleged, applied an opprobrious epithet to Rahe, when the latter struck him on the cheek. Haven returned the blow, striking Rahe in the right eye, as alleged, with a handy billy, destroying the sight entirely. Verdict of not guilty rendered and the defendant discharged.

The case of Fred Deckroyd, charged with aggravated assault and battery was next up for trial. After a few minutes absence the jury returned a verdict of acquittal, ordering the defendant, however, to pay the costs.

Charles O'Donnell was next arraigned for assault and battery on a police officer and an attempt to interfere with the said officer in the discharge of his duty. Verdict of guilty, and sentenced to pay a fine of $20 and costs and undergo an imprisonment in the county jail for the term of ten days.

George E. Shaw, the well-known optician, was placed on trial for assaulting and cruelly beating his wife Mary A. Shaw. Not concluded at the hour of adjournment.

Larceny of a Carpet Sack.

On Sunday Mr. Henry P. Reitzmors arrived in the city in a train from the east and took an omnibus for the St. Charles hotel. In the "bus" with him were two unknown negroes and no other passengers. Arrived at the St. Charles he got out, but forgot to take with him his carpet sack, which, with its contents, is valued at about six dollars. He soon started on the search of it, but on finding the omnibus he did not find either the negroes or the missing bag. He ascertained, however, that the negroes, when they got out, took with them three carpet sacks instead of two, which they took in with them. Further inquiry revealed the fact that the supposed thieves had departed on the train for Washington City. A warrant was issued by Alderman Taylor, but the negroes have not been arrested.

Larceny of Thirty-five Dollars.

Chas. J. Lemon was before Alderman Humbert yesterday charged with the larceny of thirty-five dollars from a valise belonging to Michael Connerz, which the owner had left for safe keeping at the house of Lemon, on First street, in the Second ward. After a hearing the accused was discharged, the evidence elicited proving conclusively that the theft was committed by a woman named Catherine Piper, who had been employed in Mr. Lemon's family as a domestic, but had been discharged from her position on the hearing of the larceny for drunkenness. She was seen working at the lock of the valise, by a little boy, early on Saturday morning, but after that time has not been seen any where.

Death of a Pittsburgher.

The death of David S. Lane, of this city, occurred at the Revere House, Chicago, on Thursday night last, under the following circumstances: He had arrived in Chicago on Wednesday, and presenting himself at the Revere House, he asked to be accommodated with lodgings for the night. He was short of money, he said, and could only afford to pay one dollar for his night's lodging. This was accepted, and he was shown to a room. In the morning he was found dead, and the room filled with gas. Deceased was from Pittsburgh and was extensively known in Allegheny City. He was bound to Missouri.

St. Paul's Orphan Asylum.

The magnificent structure that is being erected on Crawford street, in the Seventh ward, for a Roman Catholic Orphan Asylum, is fast approaching completion. The brick work on the main building and that of the rear or chapel wing has been finished, and a large force of workmen are busy in roofing it. Before the rigors of winter set in they expect to have it so far advanced as to allow the inside ornamentation and plastering to be done, so that its spacious doors can be thrown open to the little ones for whom it is intended, early next summer.

Had a Hearing.—Martin Joyce, charged with perpetrating an assault and battery on officers Portzer and Barker, at the Sans Souchi, on Water street, a few days since, had a hearing yesterday before Mayor McCarthy, which resulted in Joyce being held in $1,000 to answer at Court.

William Joyce, a brother of Michael, made informations against Sallie and his bar-keeper for aggravated assault and battery on Martin, and against officers Portzer and Barker for simple assault and battery, and hearings will be had at an early day.

Discharged.—Mrs. Kilpatrick, whose arrest we noticed on Saturday, for the larceny of a turkey, in the Diamond market, from the stall of Brady Mitchell, had a hearing before Mayor McCarthy, yesterday morning, which resulted in her being discharged, on the grounds of insanity. His Honor in setting her at liberty, informed her that if she would be seen again in the Market Square, she would be liable to arrest; as this is the second charge of the same character, that has been preferred against her within a month.

Closer than a Brother.—A case of too much affinity was up before Alderman Strain yesterday. Nicholas Helt made information against John Brosey for surety of the peace. The parties reside in Winter's court, Ninth ward. A day or two ago a little difficulty occurred between them, and Brosey told Helt that he (Brosey) would stick to him like a leech. Helt thought he could stand anything but that, and to avoid the infliction he made the information as aforesaid. A warrant was issued for the arrest of the adhesive Brosey.

Larceny as Bailee.—Henry Keineck, of this city, made information yesterday before Alderman Morrow charging William Seidensleivel with larceny as bailee. The deponent is an oil dealer and the defendant was employed as driver by him, and peddled oil, carrying it in a spring wagon valued at $200. On the 2d inst. Mr. Sei—&c. made his disappearance and with him Mr. Keineck's spring wagon. A warrant was issued.

Missing Man.—A man named McGaffin, who has boarded at Meanor's hotel, on Fourth street, for some time, has been missing for ten days past. His trunk and effects are at the hotel, and no word of his whereabouts is to be had. A letter came for him on Saturday, and the proprietor of the hotel has been making inquiries for him but without avail. He was last seen at the Moulders' ball at City Hall, on the 30th ult.

Infant Baptism.—Sarah M'Graw appeared before Alderman Donaldson yesterday, and made information against Margaret M'Nally, charging her with assault and battery. It is alleged that the defendant threw a basin of dirty water on the little child of deponent. The parties reside in Duquesne borough, and the alleged baptismal rite was administered on the 7th inst. The case was held for a further hearing.

Bellicose.—Caleb Parr, of Noblestown, yesterday came before Alderman Strain, and preferred a charge of assault and battery against Orlando Bell, also of Noblestown. He alleges that the Bell struck and knocked him down before he could strike the Bell. As soon as Caleb was down, it became apparent that in fighting qualities Orlando, still perpendicular, was above par. A warrant was issued.

Beaten in a Tavern.—John Higgins yesterday made his appearance at Alderman Donaldson's office and charged Patrick and Dennis Reagan with assault and battery. The deponent alleged that he went into a tavern in Diamond alley, on Saturday evening and was set upon and beaten by the defendants. The parties were arrested and the case held for a hearing.

Back.—Dr. Aborn, who has been absent for a few weeks on a professional tour in the northern part of the State, arrived in the city yesterday and can be found at the Merchants' Hotel, on Smithfield street. Those afflicted with diseases either of the eye or ear should not fail to call on him at once.

Stealing Warmth.—Nicholas Helt, of the Ninth ward, yesterday made information before Alderman Strain, charging Eliza Brosey, a neighbor, with the larceny of coal and wood to the value of five dollars. A warrant was issued.

Card.—Dr. Aborn, Oculist and Aurist, would respectfully inform his patients and the public generally, that he has returned to the city, and will immediately resume practice at his former rooms in the Merchant's Hotel.

Sixth Ward Tax Payers.—Attention of the Sixth Ward tax payers is called to the Tax Collector's notice in to-days paper.

EARLY TELEGRAMS.

FROM MEXICO.

Terms of the Surrender of Canales.

THE ABDICATION OF MAXIMILLIAN.

NEW YORK, December 10.—By the terms of surrender Canales, with all his force, will henceforth act with and under Escobedo. In four days the conjoined force, numbering about four thousand, will move through Monterey to unite with other forces on the road for the recovery of San Luis Potosi, which, together with Durango and Zacacus are promised deliverance by next January. The concentration of action throughout the Republic now promises speedy deliverance to Mexico. Juarez moves without reference to this force.

A City of Mexico correspondent says that since the arrival of Miramon and Marqueze negotiations with the Emperor for his return to the capital have been renewed.

Mejia's force at San Luis Potosi were levying forced loans to large amounts. One thousand dollars were demanded of the British Consulate.

The Cabinet was to have met at Orizaba on the 8th ult., when Vidaurri would advise an abdication, and the opening of negotiations for that purpose with Juarez.

Sherman is probably already on his way to Durango, there to await the consummation of this plan. Upon the recovery of two-thirds of the States it is probable he will urge a meeting of the Republican Congress.

The rumor here of the progress in the direction of Mejia with an Imperial force, and of a late route of Liberals on this road, under Marengo and Trereno, is ridiculed by Escobado, whose information of a later date reports a small fight and victory by those Liberal Chiefs who are now in a small town about twelve miles this side of San Luis Potosi awaiting the arrival of the rest of the corps. Escobado himself will stay here but a few days after his command. He hopes by spring to rest in the capital. Crowds of refugees throng here each day since the surrender, returning with their effects. Confidence and commerce under the restoration promise better life on the borders.

By Foreign Mails—the Alabama Claims—The Question Before the British Cabinet.

NEW YORK, December 10.—The London Morning Herald, a conservative organ, says: We are authorized to state that the question of the Alabama claims is being recently revived by the United States representative in this country in the most conciliatory and friendly tone. The subject is now under consideration by the Cabinet.

The London Globe hints at a serious difficulty between the British Government and the Cabinet at Washington, regarding the duties of the latter in maintaining legitimate faithful neutrality in the Fenian matter. The other papers discredit the idea.

Proclamation of the Governor of New Mexico.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 10.—Acting Governor Arny, of New Mexico, has issued a proclamation calling on the citizens of that territory to organize volunteer military companies, to protect themselves against the Indians. The Governor places no confidence in the treaties recently made with the Sioux and other tribes, and expects a renewal of hostilities as soon as the Government annuities lately distributed are exhausted.

Concentration of a Bolivian Army on the Uraguayan Frontier.

RIO JANEIRO, November 9.—The Republic of Bolivia, which protested against a triple alliance formed against Paraguay, has concentrated an army upon the frontier of the Argentine Province of Uraguay, and threatens to invade the Argentine Confederacy. On the intelligence received from the seat of war, announces that, on the 18th of October, the Paraguayans bombarded the Brazilian entrenched camp.

The District of Columbia.

WASHINGTON, December 10.—It is reported that after the adoption by Congress of the suffrage bill for this District, the city charter will be taken away and the city will be governed by a board of commissioners, to be appointed by the President. These commissioners will absorb the functions of the city governments of Washington. The bill has been proposed for presentation to Congress.

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE.—A Farm of about 58 acres in Union Township, Allegheny county, Pa., situate about four miles from the city on the Washington Pike. The improvements are a large two-story Brick Dwelling House with 12 rooms, a two-story Spring House, a Carriage House, a large Lumber Room, a No. 1 Frame Bank Barn, with stabling sufficient for 50 head of cattle. There is a fine Young Orchard, comprising about 12 acres, stocked with the best varieties of fruit trees. It is all underlaid with coal. The land is in a high state of cultivation, well watered, fences good, and would suit admirably for dairy or gardening purposes.

Also, 17½ acres adjoining the above, with a good Frame House, Carriage House, good Spring House and other out-buildings; with a good Orchard in fine bearing condition. This piece is also all underlaid with coal.

Also, 12 acres adjoining the above, unimproved, for sale low. This piece is also all underlaid with coal.

The above three pieces of property lie between the Little Saw Mill Run and Steubenville Railroads, and the coal can be reached easily from either road. The coal alone is worth all that is asked for the entire property.

Also Farm of 173 acres, situate in St. Clair township, Westmoreland county, Pa., immediately on the line of the Penna. Railroad. The improvements are a two-story Frame House with five rooms and good cellar, a Frame Bank Barn, 40x60 feet, and other out-buildings. There is on the place a good Young Apple Orchard: 120 acres cleared, balance in good timber; fencing generally good, well watered; underlaid with coal and limestone; convenient to churches, mills, schools and blacksmith shops, together with the personal property such as stock, implements, grain in the ground, &c. Posession given immediately.

Also Farm of 53 acres, situated in Chartiers township, Allegheny county, Pa., about 8½ miles from the city, near the line of the Steubenville R. R., and within one-half mile of a station; 30 acres of the best of creek bottom land, and in a high state of cultivation; 23 acres of wood land and pasture. The fencing is genarally good. The soil is No. 1, and well adapted for gardening. The attention of those wishing to embark in the business will call at once and secure a good bargain, as this is a rare chance.

Also, Farm of 84 acres, situate in Elizabeth township, Allegheny county, Pa., on the Monongahela river, about one mile from the Borough of Elizabeth. The soil is of the best quality. The improvements are a farm house with six rooms, a good barn and other out buildings; fencing good; about 50 acres of coal. Churches, schools and mills very convenient. Possession immediately.

Also, the best Farm in Elizabeth township, containing about 90 acres, lying on the Monongahela river immediately below Lock No. 3, on which is erected a large two-story brick dwelling, one log and one frame barn, barn, corn crib, wagon shed, brick spring house, granary, work shop, &c.; about 30 acres of the above is first quality river bottom; the balance being limestone land, and underlaid with coal, and about 20 acres of limestone. There are two orchards of apple trees, in good bearing condition; peach, pear, plum trees and grape vines, &c. The land is well adapted for gardening purposes, being a short distance from the thriving borough of Elizabeth, creating a market at home for all the products. The property will be sold cheap and on reasonable terms.

Also, A Farm of 96 acres, situated in Elizabeth township, Allegheny county, Pa., about one mile from Lock No. 3, on Monongahela river. Improvements are one frame house, with five rooms, barn, spring house and other outbuildings. The land is of the best quality. The above will be sold at very low figures.

FOR SALE—400 Acres of Coal Land, lying immediately upon the Ohio River, 20 miles below Gallipolis, and 185 miles above Cincinnati. On the above tract is a four foot vein of Coal, which, for general purposes, is not surpassed. It is entirely different from the Southern Ohio Coal; contains but little sulphur, forges and cokes well, and for making steam cannot be excelled. The location being about midway from Pomeroy and Hanging Rock, must make it valuable for coaling boats. There is a water front of ¾ of a mile, with a good landing at all stages of the river. An entrance has been run in the hill about 300 feet, track finished to river, together with the necessary fixtures for mining and delivering coal afloat. On said tract is first-class double Portable Circular Saw Mill together with a Portable Grist Mill, all in good running order, and plenty of the very best oak, ash and poplar timber. Would sell one-half interest if desired, to a party with experience and capital for working same.

—The amount of currency interest to be disbursed on and after Saturday next, December 15, on the second series of the United States Seven Thirty per cent. notes is about ten and a half millions, say 3,65 per cent on $290,000,000 (originally $300,000,000) of this series of notes now outstanding. Of this sum of $10,500,000, less than one-third will probably be disbursed directly by the treasury office in New York. The national bank depositories of the treasury throughout the country are usually directed to pay the Seven-Thirty per cent coupons whenever presented, charging up the amount paid to the Treasury at Washington. This is a great convenience to the holders of Seven Thirty per cents remote from the Atlantic cities. The next currency interest payments will be on the 15th of January, on about $210,000,000 (originally $230,000,000) of the third series of $7.30 per cents now outstanding.

—The amendment to the currency act, introduced into the Senate by Mr. Chandler, and made the special order for the third Tuesday in December, 1866, enacts—

That section 22 of the act to which this is an amendment is hereby so amended as to authorize the issue of $100,000,000 of notes for circulation in addition to the $300,000,000 provided for in said section 22, and that the additional $100,000,000 shall be secured in all respects and under the instructions and provisions of the act hereby amended: Provided, That not more than $5,000,000 of the $100,000,000 of additional notes for circulation shall be issued or delivered to banks, by the Comptroller of the currency, within six months from the passage of this and that thereafter not more than $2,000,000 of notes for circulation shall be issued during any one month.

—Trustworthy advices from Washington state that Congress is not disposed to inflate the currency much further in the form of bank circulation. In view of the steady reduction of legal-tenders, it is justly regarded as a dangerous step to increase the volume of currency to be redeemed in greenbacks. It is apparent in Washington as in all the commercial cities that the national banks are now, as a whole, barely able to keep up this reserve of lawful money upon the existing liabilities. Of the propriety of withdrawal of the legal tenders by cancelation or conversion into a gold-bearing debt there can be no question. They were a desperate remedy for a dangerous disease and cannot be too soon taken out of circulation.—N. Y. Tribune.

—It is announced that twenty-two banks in Wisconsin are about to close their business. They are the following—namely: The Bank of Appleton, the Bank of Fond du Lac, the Beloit Savings Bank, the Dodge County Bank, Hall Brothers' Bank, the Koshkonong Bank, the Mercantile Bank, the Oconto Bank, Osborne's Bank, the Portage County Bank, the Southern Bank, the Winnebago County Bank, the Merchants' Bank, the Bank of Portage the Wisconsin Valley Bank, the Reedsburg Bank, the Bank of Albany, the Waukesha County Bank, the Bank of Eau Claire, the Bank of Beaver Dam, the Tradesman Bank, and the Waupun Bank. The Bank Comptroller's report for December 1, 1866, shows no great change in the condition of the State banks. About $60,000 is on outstanding circulation, owned by about fifty banks, which will be redeemed at par on presentation of the same. Forty banks have exchanged their State stocks for United States stocks. The twenty-two banks above named will pay an average of 75 cents on the dollar on outstanding circulation. The highest paid by any one is 90c on the dollar.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
MONDAY, Dec. 10, 1866.

The week does not open very auspiciously for business, if to-day can be taken as a fair criterion; and, indeed, many of our business men despair of any improvement until after the approaching holidays have passed. The arrivals of Flour, Grain, and produce generally, have commenced to diminish, and while stocks are comparatively light, the supply, nevertheless, is in excess of the demand, which is restricted to supplying the immediate wants of the local trade. There is an entire absence of anything like a speculative feeling, the experience of the past two or three months having a very wholesome tendency to squelch anything of that kind, and we have no hesitation in saying that the business of this place is now conducted on a legitimate foundation, though, it is true, the volume of trade is very light.

GRAIN—Wheat is dull and neglected, and as there are no sales to report, it is impossible to give accurate quotations, and the same remarks will apply to Corn and Barley. Oats dull and unchanged—we quote at 48 to 50, on track. Rye is in fair demand at $1,25 to $1,30, though, it is held generally at $1,32 to $1,35.

FLOUR—There is no improvement to note in the demand, and while the market is dull and neglected, prices are nominally unchanged—$11,50 to $12 for Spring Wheat; $13 to $13,50 for Winter Wheat; and $14 to $16 for fancy brands. Rye Flour is a shade lower, being quoted at $8¾ per bbl, while Buckwheat remains unchanged at $4½ per cwt.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is dull, and prices are nominal. Lard is dull—may be quoted at 13 to 13½, for new kettle rendered, in tierces. There is not enough doing in Mess Pork to establish quotations. Dressed Hogs may be quoted at 7 to 7¼.

APPLES—Continue to arrive pretty freely, but with some inquiry for shipment and a fair home demand, prices are maintained, ranging from $2½ to $3¾ per bbl, as to quality.

POTATOES—In good demand, and the market is firm at full prices. We quote prime Peach Blows, in store, at $1 per bush, and $3 per bbl.

BUTTER—Continues dull, with a supply considerably in excess of the demand, though prices remain unchanged at 25 to 30, for fair to prime Roll.

EGGS—Steady, with regular sales at 35 to 36 for limed, and 37 to 38 for fresh packed.

CHEESE—We can report sales of 10 boxes Western Reserve at 15¼, and 17 boxes Factory at 17. Goshen is quoted at 19 to 20, and Hamburg at 16 to 17.

SEEDS—Flaxseed is in steady demand at $3 to $3,10. Timothy Seed is dull at $5, while Clover Seed is quoted firm at $7,50@$8.

DRIED FRUIT—Sales of 4 bbls Apples at 11c; 6 sks do at 10, and 4 bbls Peaches (quarters) at 18—halves are quoted at 22.

BEANS—Firm and prime Navy sell readily at $2,75 per bushel.

SORGHUM—Is very dull with a supply largely in excess of the demand. We now quote at 60 to 65.

HAY—Prime baled Hay, in good demand and limited supply; may be quoted at $30 to $32—the latter an outside figure.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
MONDAY, December 10, 1866.

CRUDE—The change in the atmosphere had a tendency to stiffen the crude market to-day, and with a prospect of navigation being impeded very soon, if not altogether suspended, holders were not as anxious to realize as they were last week. It should be borne in mind however, that aside from this, there is really nothing on which to base a firmer feeling, the intelligence from the east as well as from Europe, indicating no improvement, and the supply almost everywhere seems to be largely in excess of the demand. We now quote at 8 to 8½, in bulk, according to gravity, with buyers at both prices, and some holders are asking 9c. We have but a single sale to report, six hundred barrels, on eastern account, at 14½, free on board cars. With the exception of the fact that there is a little firmer feeling, apparently, and less oil offering, the market has undergone no material change since Saturday.

REFINED—The market for bonded oil, although devoid of excitement or buoyancy, was apparently a shade firmer to-day, and compared with last week, there was rather more inquiry. We can report sales of 1000 bbls, on the spot, in Philadelphia, at 29; 1500 for February delivery, at 27, free on board cars here, and 2000 bbls, in two lots of one thousand barrels each, standard white, at 30c, for immediate delivery in Philadelphia. There is some little inquiry for small lots of free oil, and standard brands are selling in 10 to 30 barrel lots at 47 to 48.

ARRIVALS—The following arrivals were reported to-day:

Lockart & Frew	2000	Fisher & Bro	1027
Jas. Wilkins	77	Gallagher & Son	500

ALLEGHENY COUNTY, SS.—In the Court of Common Pleas, No. 619 December Term, 1866. In the matter of the application of the Great Western Building and Loan Association of Allegheny City for a Charter of Incorporation.

And now, to wit: Nov. 30th 1866. Petition filed after being presented to and examined by the Court, and the objects, articles and conditions therein set forth and contained appearing to be lawful and not injurious to the community, it is ordered and directed that said writing be filed in the office of the Prothonotary of the Court of Common Pleas, and that notice of said application be given as required by law, in a newspaper printed in the City of Pittsburgh and county of Allegheny, for at least three weeks, setting forth that an application has been made to the Court to grant said Great Western Building and Loan Association of Allegheny City a Charter of Incorporation, and that said charter will be granted at the next term of the Court of Common Pleas, unless exceptions hereto be filed in proper time.

FROM THE RECORD. JACOB H. WALTER, Prothonotary.

All persons interested will please to take notice of the above order of Court.

A. WIEDMANN,
de1:p2:TU Attorney for the Association.

ALLEGHENY COUNTY, SS.

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA.

To the Heirs and Legal Representatives of JOHN WHITEHOUSE, late of said county, deceased:

You are hereby cited to be and appear before me, JOS. H. GRAY, Register of Wills, &c., in and for said county, on or before WEDNESDAY, the 12th day of December next, at said Register's office, at Pittsburgh, then and there to take out Letters of Administration on the estate of said John Whitehouse, deceased, or show cause, if any, why the same should not be granted to HARRISON RITCHLEY, or some other fit person.

Given under my hand and seal of office, at Pittsburg, this 24th day of November, A. D., 1866.

RIVER NEWS.

The river remains about stationary at this point with ten feet in the channel by the marks last evening. The weather yesterday was stormy and cold, with a slight spitting of snow at intervals.

The arrivals since our last report, include the Silver Lake, from Portsmouth, and the Columbia, from Cincinnati. The latter boat had a very good trip and she would have reached here much sooner had it not been for fog. The Argosy, from Cincinnati, is due here to-day and will leave again on Wednesday. The Bayard, cleared for Parkersburg, on time, with a fair trip.

The tow-boats Hercules and Stella cleared for Louisville, on Sunday, with tows of coal. The former, had three boats and three barges and the latter two boats and seven barges. The Wild Duck will get off to-day, providing she can get her tow ready.

The tow-boat A. J. Baker, owned by our townsman J. Sharp, McDonald, arrived at New Orleans on Saturday last with one of the biggest tows of coal that was ever taken into that port by a boat of her class. She had six boats two barges, and two french creeks, containing in all about one hundred and sixty thousand bushels. The Baker left again on Saturday for Louisville, and will doubtless get out with another tow.

The Ida Rees, Capt Joe Brown, is up for Cincinnati, and Louisville, and the Bellevernon, Capt Darragh, and the Lorena, Capt Conway, both good boats, are announced, for St. Louis.

The Kate Robinson, and the Leonidas, Capt M. A. Cox, both good boats, are up for New Orleans.

The Silver Cloud, and New York, left Cincinnati, for Pittsburgh on Saturday and the Glendale, arrived at St. Louis on Thursday last. The tow boat Sam Brown, whith five barges of iron in tow enroute from St. Louis to Pittsburg, was at Cairo on Saturday, and the Minnie and Ezra Porter, were at Evansville the same day also enroute for this city.

The Echo got in from Oil City yesterday, and the Peerless cleared for the same point last evening. Another day's freezing like that of yesterday, will doubtless fill the Allegheny river pretty full of floating ice, and in that event, navigation will soon be suspended. It was reported very cold at Oil City yesterday, and the river was receding rapidly.

The Memphis Argus has concluded from all it can learn, that the Great Republic, now being built here, will when finished, eclipse anything in the shape of a steamboat on the Western Waters, not even excepting the "low pressure" Richmond, now in process of construction at Madison. The Argus is right for once.

The Robert E. Lee has five clerks. The New Orleans Times publishes their names in full every trip, as if they were the members of some important committee. The same paper never informs the public who is pilot or engineer of a boat. Verily, some reporters had better be born again.

The Memphis Commercial says:—We yesterday heard it stated that the Magenta has lost $60,000 since entering the Egg's Point and New Orleans trade. We presume the sum is exaggerated.

Joseph Donneberger, an Ohio and Mississippi pilot, was robbed by an old crony named John Habit of $700 in Treasury notes, in Cincinnati on Wednesday last.

CITY OF SHREVEPORT VS. STEAMBOATS.—It will be recollected by many of our readers that a number of the steamboat owners refused to pay wharfage, on the ground that Shreveport, in reality, had no wharf. The Justice of the Peace decided against them, but the steamboatmen referred this matter to the district court, and his honor Judge James I. Weems, decided in the sea-going men's favor.

Capt. Bolls, representing himself as a wealthy Mississippian, from Yazoo, has been playing queer pranks among the boatman and merchants at St. Louis. A day or two ago he bargained for the steamer Mexico for $14,000, borrowed $100 to pay the first installment, hired a crew, ordered boat stores, loaded her with freight, and was about to sail for the South when suspicion was aroused and he was stopped in his mad career, before he had swindled any one to a large amount, by a check of his being dishonored. Bolls is supposed to be crazy.

The Louisville Democrat is severe on the steamer Westmoreland. It says:—We understand that somebody interested in the antediluvian scow, with Westmoreland on her wheel-houses, was "blowing his bugle" yesterday on the wharf about what we said about that box. If he don't like what we said he can "jump it"—we ain't scared—always at home. Our parents always taught us never to turn our back upon any one. We don't run—we can't—too lazy—fight first. We wonder where that hap keeps his graveyard to bury his dead in.

PURE CALIFORNIA WINES.

GURNER & CO.,

No. 80 Cedar St., New York,

Offer for sale these valuable Wines, which are gaining public favor with astonishing rapidity, and whose unprecedented and unrivalled popularity is not without merit. They have only to be fairly tested to give them the preference over all others. As a purifier of blood they excel all other Wines, and the numerous certificates which have voluntarily been tendered from the most eminent physicians, as well as gentlemen in every position in life, are proof conclusive that these Wines are useful in all cases for which they are recommended.

The following brands are now offered by us. They comprise all the varieties now grown in the State suitable for sale:

WHITE, or HOCK WINE—Of a light straw color, very delicate and fine flavored.

CLARET—A superior wine for table use.

ANGELICA—A rich and naturally sweet wine, much admired by ladies, and valuable in the sick chamber, as it makes fine wheys and jellies. It is a fine dessert wine, and well adapted for Communion purposes.

MUSCATEL—A light colored, highly aromatic wine. Very similar to the celebrated Tokay.

PORT—Deep red color, fine flavor, and in many respects similar to the old wines of Lisbon.

GRAPE BRANDY—The pure distillation of our wines.

WINE BITTERS—A very agreeable tonic and a sure remedy for the diarrhea.

This is one of the most valuable combinations of a useful and an agreeable beverage that has ever been offered to the public. Millions of bottles were sold throughout the North during the last four years, and wherever introduced it has proved a welcome addition to the invalid table, the family circle, and the bachelor's sideboard.

Ladies who have lost strength and appetite, and suffer from nausea, vomiting and vertigo; gentlemen who "don't feel very well" just before breakfast or dinner whose stomachs are out of order and whose systems are generally deranged; mothers weaning children and suffering from general debility; children of sickly nature and sour, dyspeptic constitutions; travelers who have occasion to change their water; and all who live in malarious districts and are subject to miasmatic influences, will find it one of the most valuable invigorators that can be taken.

It was used very extensively in 1861, with such general satisfaction that in offering it to the public now we deem it unnecessary to publish any of the many certificates that we have received, testifying in the very strongest terms in its favor. All that we can say is to guarantee that we will pledge ourselves to furnish an article PURE AND UNADULTERATED.

It has been given to little children suffering from weakness and weak lungs with most happy effect. One little girl in particular, with pains in her head, loss of appetite and daily wasting consumption, on whom all medical skill has been exhausted, has been entirely restored. She began with but a teaspoonful a day. Her appetite and strength rapidly increased and she is now well.

List of Prices:
